“OH, THOSE CHRISTIAN TEACHERS”

TEXT: Daniel 12:3 “Those who are wise, will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.”

INTRODUCTION: Daniel prophesies about life after the end of time. We take note of what he says about those who teach the faith. Those who lead many to righteousness, [will shine] like the stars forever and ever.” We are grateful to our Sunday School and Lutheran School Teachers! May the Lord perpetuate them among us!

- 1 – Children – the most likely to learn.
- 2 – Dual focus: Missions and Christian Education.
- 3 – Sunday School.
- 4 – Catechesis. (Instruction for Confirmation)
- 5 – Christian Youth Organizations and events.
- 6 – Parochial Schools.
- 7 – Adult Confirmation.

CONCLUSION: The Christian church goes into the world and teaches! In going, we baptize and in going, we educate. The task of the church is to proclaim the Gospel. We place much emphasis on missions, but equally important is the teaching of the faith to our children and those around us! May God grant us to do our work well as we support our Christian teachers! Amen.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
The Crucified and Risen Body of Christ Jesus Is the True Temple of God

Despite its “wonderful stones” and “great buildings,” the Jerusalem temple would be torn down, with not one stone left upon another, just as this present world and its kingdoms will come to an end (Mark 13:1–8). But that temple pointed beyond itself to Christ, to His sacrifice upon the cross and to the resurrection of His body as the true Temple of God. In the midst of sin and death, by the proclamation of the Gospel, He now gathers disciples into His body, wherein “the one who endures to the end will be saved” (Mark 13:10–13). For He is “a great priest over the house of God,” who “will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.” By the pure water of His Baptism, they “draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith,” and by His flesh and blood, they enter the Holy of Holies (Heb. 10:17–22). Thus are His people delivered, “everyone whose name shall be found written in the book.” For by the wisdom of His Gospel, He turns “many to righteousness,” so that “many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake” to everlasting life (Dan. 12:1–3).
